

Outdoor Channel adds Charity TV Global's "Adventure All Stars" to 2021 line up

Australian production company Charity TV Global has sealed its first TV broadcast deal with Outdoor Channel Asia, which has picked up rights for eight one-hour episodes of socially conscious travel series, "Adventure All Stars". The programmes, featuring real-life cast members on a journey to a secret location for six days, will air on the pan-Asia network in 2021 and will cover locations from across Australia and New Zealand, including New South Wales, Northern Territory, Queensland, Tasmania, Victoria, Auckland, Northland, Rotorua and Christchurch.
